

WORK SESSION OF THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS
CITY OF FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY

FEBRUARY
4, 2002
5:00 P.M. (EST)

PRESENT: Commissioner Lynn Bowers
Commissioner Tracey Turner Thurman
Commissioner Robert Roach
Commissioner Sallye Hill Stumbo
Mayor William I. May, Jr. (5)
ABSENT: None (0)

Attorney Charles Jones reviewed quitclaim deed to Habitat for Humanity. Patrick Hoagland, Brandstetter Carroll Inc., was in attendance to respond to questions regarding Parks and Recreation master plan. Darrell Gilliam, CCEIDA, accompanied by Pete Walsh, YMCA, reviewed proposal for industrial park child care center to be operated by YMCA. Joe Barnes, Richards Insurance Agency, reviewed request for amendment to solid waste collection regulations which would make the insurance needed by Valley View Mobile Home Park owner available to him. Following discussion of Streetscape Phase II to determine whether to delay project construction until December 27, 2002, staff instructed to get commitment in writing from funding agencies that monies will be available if grant extension period is requested and approved, and to have survey of merchants to determine their preference for construction schedule to be done by February 7, 2002 regular meeting. Citizen comments: Diana Looney expressed concern for merchants; survey merchants for their preference. Jim Peel complimented Board on city services that are provided to the citizens; solid waste should be controlled by capacity or weight, city should furnish scales for weighing garbage or help citizens buy the scales cheaper through bulk purchase to help in compliance with new solid waste collection regulations. Diana Looney requested additional solid waste brochures for distribution; noted sticks being placed in roadway for collection; city needs to do more public education. Commissioner Stumbo noted State Farm Insurance building at intersection on East-West Connector (676) was going to be for sale if interested in looking at it for Fire Department. Citizen comment: Diana Looney, city should put post office box address in newspaper since postal service has stopped delivery of city's mail having street address only. Meeting adjourned upon motion by Commissioner Stumbo.
